

ANU ANTHROPOLOGY SEMINAR SERIES SEMESTER TWO, 2009

ANU anthropology seminars are held on Wednesday mornings 9.30 – 11.00am throughout the teaching period.

Location: Seminar Room, A, Coombs Building, Fellows Rd, ANU

22 July Peter Sutton (University of Adelaide)

The Jodhpur in History: Anthropologists, bushwalkers, artists, metaphysicians and other progressives between the wars

29 July James Taylor (University of Adelaide)

Stanley Tambiah's legacy and an anthropology of Theravada Buddhism in Thailand

5 August Robert Foster (University of Rochester)
Title: TBA

12 August James Fox (ANU)

On the Genealogy of Genealogy

19 August Fred Damon (Anthropology, University of Virginia)

Materializing Values: Outrigger Structures on the Eastern Half of the Kula Ring

26 August Anneliese Kuhle (Linguistics, ANU)

Reciprocity in Language and Beyond

2 September Greg Noble (University of Western Sydney)

Walking while Leb: The racial politics of movement in local spaces

9 September Diane Austin-Broos (Anthropology, University of Sydney)

Translating Christianity: Some keywords, events and sites in Western Arrernte conversion

16 September Gillian Cowlshaw (UTS)

Culture and the absurd: fashioning Indigeneity in contemporary Australia

23 September Cristina Rocha (University of Western Sydney)

“Healing the Land of its Suffering”: The John of God Movement in Australia

Semester Break 28 Sept – 9 Oct

14 October Mark Mosko (Anthropology, ANU)
Title: TBA

21 October Paul Burke (Anthropology, ANU)

Warlpiri Diaspora: Concepts and initial impressions (ANU)

28 October Doreen Montag (Anthropology, ANU)

Embodied Biopolitics of Fever