SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Each entry must comprise a print of the photograph (8 x 10 inches minimum) - or electronic file - along with a brief artist's statement (50 words) for each photograph. No artwork, either digital or hard copy will be returned. They may be either black and white or colour. If your entry is selected you will need to be able to supply us with a high quality image in one of the following forms:

- Equivalent of a jpeg fine digital image
- A high quality slide (transparency
- A high quality colour film negative
- A high quality black and white film negative.

SUCCESSFUL ENTRIES:

If selected for the final collection to be hung in the new Hedley Bull Centre, we will require a signed release form which indemnifies the ANU and specifies that you have the right to submit the photograph. Specifically, it will stipulate that the photograph was either taken by you or (if you are the subject of the photograph) that you have permission from the photographer to submit it. It will also release to the ANU the rights for reproduction (to make and frame a print of your photograph) and publicity (if we choose to use it in promotional material like our website). All other rights will remain with the photographer.
